THE SUGAR BUSINESS.

One of Pitt's memorable speeches began with the words "Sugar, gentlemen!" It is also a remarkable fact that the unlucky question of sugar-duties, in 1792, hastened the Union between G. Britain and Ireland, because the Irish Parliament imposed much lower duties than in G. Britain. In France also sugar-duties have caused such trouble that in 1842, under King Louis Philippe, a bill was introduced into the Chambers to pull up all the beet-root plantations and pay an indemnity to the growers. Even in our own times it has been laid down by economists that the well-being of nations may be measured by the consumption of sugar per inhabitant. Mr. Hansen, in his recent report, moreover shews that the protection given to sugar-growers in Argentina causes a loss of $1,800,000 gold to the revenue, which money goes into the pockets of 54 sugar-growers, without any advantage to the public; this loss of £360,00 sterling is feebly compensated by the knowledge that we consume Argentine instead of French sugar.

In Mr. Fliess's new work on Agriculture he shews that the sugar industry of this country is as follows :—

	Acres.	Tons of cane
Tucuman	54,800	670,000
Santiago	1,300	13,000
Jujuy.....	2,700	26,000
Salta	1,200	2,000
Chaco, &c.....	4,200	10,000
Total....	64,200	721,000

It appears, therefore, that the average yield is 11 tons of cane per acre, reaching 12 tons in Tucuman and falling to 2½ tons in Chaco and Misiones. But here we must observe that Hardy's sugar-fields in the Chaco yield 26 tons of cane per acre, and hence we believe that Mr. Fliess's figures under this item are too low.

The production of sugar, on the same authority, is as follows :—

	No. Sugar-mills.	Output tons sugar.
Tucuman....	34	40,220
Santiago.....	5	660
Jujuy.....	2	1,700
Salta	1	160
Misiones....	2	340
Chaco.....	2	300
Total....	46	43,380

The quantity imported last year was 13,000 tons, making the total consumption 56,000 tons, which is equal to 30 lbs. per inhabitant.

The average consumption per inhabitant in various countries compares as follows :—

Pounds yearly per head

Gt. Britain	70	Switzerland	23
U. States...	52	Sweden	18
Australia...	89	Belgium ...	16
Canada	45	Germany ..	15
Argentina.	30	Austria.....	13
Denmark ..	30	Russia.....	8
Holland....	29	Italy.....	7
France....	23	Spain.....	6

The average for all Europe is 15 lbs. or half the consumption in the Argentine Republic.

According to Mr. Fliess the sugar-industry in this country gives occupation to 28,000 persons, including Mataco and other Indians. The value of the sugar, at £15 per ton, represents a sum of £650,000. To this must be added 3,000,000 gallons of alcohol, (70,000 barrels) worth £150,000, making up a total of £800,000, or £27 per head of the persons employed. This is, indeed, a very poor return, being the gross product; whereas the product of a flock of 1,000 sheep (minded by a boy of 12 years) is in wool alone more than £100 sterling. Viewed from whatever stand-point it cannot be said that the sugar-industry enriches the country. But, as the planters are enabled by the high Customs-duties to sell their sugar at £30 to £35 per ton it proves very profitable to them, but to nobody else.

The statistics above given shew that 100 tons of sugar-cane produce 6 tons of sugar, or that the yield of the latter is about three-quarters of a ton per acre, and that for each ton of sugar produced there are 60 gallons of alcohol. Mr. Fliess's notes on the several provinces may be condensed as follows :—

Tucuman.—The crop of sugar-cane has risen from 280,000 tons in 1887 to 670,000 in 1890. The yield a few years ago was less than 5 tons sugar, and is now 6 tons, per 100 of cane : Mr. Hilaret obtains as much as 8 tons, owing to the perfection of his machinery. The price paid at the mills for sugar-cane varies from 10 to 16$ currency per ton. Some small planters sold their crop in 1891 at 250$ currency per acre. Mr. Hilaret guarantees his planters 3$ 20 cents gold perton of sugar-cane, or the equivalent in currency. Some millers have bought the crop of 1892 before hand at 15$ per ton, and lost heavily by the fall in gold. Mr. Schickendantz finds that the crop averages 14 tons of cane per acre, or 16 if the land be manured.

Santiago.—There are 5 sugar-mills in this province, but three of them have been abandoned. The climate is not suitable, owing to severe frosts in April, which destroy the saccharine. Moreover the ground is so salty that it spoils the cane, even when irrigated from the Rio Dulce. The two mills that are working draw most of their cane from Tucuman, a distance of 80 miles. Don Luis Pintos has the best plantation in the province, about 12 miles from Fernandez station, on the Sunchales-Tucuman railway, in the midst of a Chaco forest, Salta and Jujuy.—The climate of these provinces is admirably adapted, and the plantations occupy about 2,000 hands, mostly Calchaqui Indians. Messrs. Leach Brothers have a fine establishment at Esperanza, 12 miles from Perico station, on the Tucuman-Jujuy railway: their crop averages 15 tons of cane per acre, but the Indian laborers eat one-fourth of it, chewing cane all day long. The three brother Leach are Englishmen, long resident in the country; they also grow some cotton. Don Sixto Ovejero has also a fine sugar-mill in Jujuy, the machinery for which he imported in 1867, and brought up in bullock-carts from Rosario, the carts making the journey (880 miles) in 8 months.

It is to be regretted that Mr. Fliess had not an opportunity of visiting the sugar-fields of the Chaco and Misiones. He gives the statistics of a few that reached him viz:—

	Hands employed	Tons cane
Santa Ana.....	600	4,500
Santo Tomé.....	23	400
Bonaccio &c.....	1,385	5,100

He makes no mention of the great establishment of Las Palmas, belonging to Messrs. Hardy, the most enterprising Irishmen in the Argentine Republic, whose estate covers 400 sq. miles and has 2,000 settlers, between Europeans, Paraguayans and Indians: there are already 1,500 acres under cane, the crop averaging 30,000 tons, and producing 3,000 tons of sugar.

Mr. Fliess treats his readere to much information about beet-cultivation in Europe, but this is of little interest to us. The bounties recently voted by Congress for growing beet may stimulate this new branch of industry, and do a corresponding amount of injury to the Republic, by taking people from the safer and more profitable pursuits of rearing sheep and cattle.

THE MURDER OF SEÑORA LOZARDI.

DECLARATION OF THE WITNESSES.

(From the "Diario.")

On Thursday Judge Antola, assisted by Dr. Gonsalez, took the declarations of the prisoner Carlos Lozardi, as also of the little servant-girl Rufina.

Lozardi seemed very depressed and denied his guilt, adding :—

"Why should I murder Amelia?"

The Judge pointed out that his declarations already taken were very contradictory. He thereupon began to groan, to pull his hair and make wry faces, and said: "Gentlemen, I am sick."

The examination was then suspended.

At 3.30 p. m. the prisoner was again brought forward. He is tall, of fair complexion, ill-dressed, and looks more like a peasant than a gentleman. This time he carried his head high, looking at the bystanders, and entered the Judge's private room. It is believed that his versions of the murder are so contradictory as to implicate him.

The little girl Rufina, after much hesitation, gave evidence as follows :—

"I did not tell all the truth before, because Carlos Lozardi threatened to kill me if I said anything. He is the murderer. He has been my lover for more than a year, and was in the habit of coming into my room at night. Therefore when he asked me, that night, to leave my door unbolted I did so: that is, I waited till my mistress was asleep, and then unbolted my door, after which I went to bed again and fell asleep.

"About 1.30 a.m. I awoke in terror, hearing the report of firearms, and seeing that the room was dark (Mrs. Lozardi always had night-lights burning.) I thought robbers had attacked the house, having forgotten all about Lozardi. I was afraid to scream but sat up in bed and heard the cry that my mistress gave.

"Then I saw a man running out of the room with a revolver in his hand. He wore a shirt, trousers and canvas shoes, but no hat.

"It struck me the man was Carlos Lozardi. Some one immediately afterwards tapped at the window which looked into the court-yard. I looked out and saw, in the moonlight, Lozardi dressed as described above. Then I knew he was the murderer.

"He exclaimed: "Get up, Rufina. Somebody has killed Amelia." I went towards the next room and met Lozardi coming in. He put his fist in my face, and said he would murder me if I told what I had seen.

"There was no ill-feeling between my mistress and Carlos Lozardi: she was always very kind to him."

THE ARGENTINE SWITZERLAND.

CAPILLA DEL MONTE.

In our last section (Section 8) we fully described the Hotel de la Primavera, at Capilla del Monte, being the best hotel in the Sierras, and the price $4 to $5 per day being exceedingly moderate, especially when it is taken into consideration that it is a well built house in English style and very well furnished, with ladies' sala and also billiard table and tennis court. Intending visitors should make early application, as the hotel only accommodates about 20 to 25 persons.

But there are many persons, especially families, who in these hard times are desirous of getting away from the cities and their permanent travelling places, to seek fresh air and amusement on a summer holiday, provided they can do so with moderate expense, but at the same time want comfort and cleanliness. To these can be confidently recommended the fine new Restaurant de Capilla del Monte, which has just been finished. The owner, Don Luciano Bonora, has been three years in Capilla del Monte, and during that time has had the leading almacen in the place which has also accommodation for 3 or 4 guests; but he has now finished his new house, built of solid stone and brick, with good boarded floor to every room. The house contains a fine dining-room and fine airy bedrooms with windows, corredor and patio, with very clean domestic offices. Don Luciano being a man of some means has furnished it very comfortably, and the cooking and attendance is exceptionally good, and his nationality (an Austrian from the Tyrol) will speak for his honesty and civility. The prices are a marvel; separate bedroom with coffee or tea in the morning, good breakfast and dinner, including good native wine, attendance etc., $2.50 to $3 per day and no extras. Horses, with or without saddles, can always be obtained, the prices being remarkably low. Horse per day, with saddle, $1 50, without saddle $1. Per hour, with saddle, 75 cents, without saddle 50 cents. An experienced and trustworthy guide and horse can be procured at an hour's notice, price $2.50 per day. New laid eggs, cow, goat and asses milk always ready, and last but not least, the cooking is in the English style, free of all grease and garlic, and very clean.

As the accommodation is limited, intending visitors should apply as soon as possible to Don Luciano Bonora, Casilla de Correo 80, Cordoba, which will insure an immediate reply in English or Spanish. Don Luciano speaks English, having passed several years in the States

We have now fully described the accommodation to be obtained here, and will proceed to describe some of the delightful excursions to be made in the immediate neighbourhood. Being a mountain resort, it is only meet that we first mention the Sierras—here they form a very different aspect to those at Alta Gracia or Cosquin—one of the great advantages of Capilla del Monte lies in having the mountains right on the spot; 20 minutes walk or 10 minutes on horse back takes you into the first gorge. The mountains here are much higher than in the other places abovementioned and form a very imposing background, rising precipitously to 6,500 feet above the sea. This point, which is the highest in the whole range, is the nearest mountain to Capilla del Monte and is called the "Sierra de las Minas"—the whole journey can be done on mule back or on foot. From the village the road winds along the river, which is of much grander formation than any of the other resorts in this neighbourhood—the rocks and stones being stupendous—and what adds more than anything else to the pleasure and beauty of this trip is the fact that all along the river are dense woods of much larger growth than in any other place—magnificent trees of quebracho, moye, tala, algarroba etc. being in great abundance—dense shade is to found the whole way along the river; but after leaving this, a grand climb is afforded to those who want to reach the highest peak in the Sierras—near the top delightfully cool water is obtained from a spring bubbling out from the mother earth. The summit is of an entirely different formation to the Sierras on the other side of the mountains, such as Alta Gracia etc. Here the summit consists of a vast mass of high rocks, many having a circumference of 50 feet, and they lie one on the other in a most quaint and tangled mass, as if they had simultaneously fallen from above. The guides carry the food to any part required, so that one can enjoy a delightful pic-nic at a very great height. From this summit magnificent views can be obtained of the other "sierras," and a vast panorama of the Punilla valley ending with the "sierras grandes" to the south-west. Immediately below lies beautiful little Capilla del Monte and further off other hamlets, till in the far north-west, with field glasses, is discerned the quaint old town of Cruz del Eje—the terminus of the railway. Another very delightful excursion is the Mogotes, about half an hour on foot or 15 to 20 minutes on horseback. This is in the opposite direction, leaving the "sierras" behind us. The road is an excellent one, past palm trees and over a most interesting piece of country of granite formation. The last half leads through charming woods, with massive rocks on each side, thus forming a gorge. This continues until the river is reached. This river is called Rio de Dolores, and is quite distinct from the other river coming from the mountains and which has already been described, that river being the Rio de la Capilla del Monte. Emerging from the woods, a sight is suddenly beheld which is quite unique in this province, and probably many others. We see before us a line of cliffs in the midst of which are piled up one upon the other enormous rocks until they reach the level of the ground; above the rocks form a succession of caves and grottoes rising one above the other, and through these caves comes tumbling down the river; but not to an extent to make it dangerous, no part being over two feet deep; but the great beauty is the strange sight of seeing the river coming through the roofs of the caves, dashing down in a silvery stream to the floor, crossing it and then falling down to the cave below and so on until it reaches the open ground where the horses have to be left. The ascent here into the caves is best done with boots and stockings off, as it is a matter of constant wading. These "Mogotes" may conscientiously be said to form the most enjoyable and unique trip in the whole Province of Cordoba, and it is an excursion which can also be safely undertaken by children. For a pic nic no more delightful place could possibly be found.

Another leading excursion is that to a place called "Cunoputo." Here one sees the mining operations of the Jesuit Fathers, undertaken some 150 to 250 years ago; here are numerous passages, diggings and galleries where the Fathers with Indian labour obtained much gold and silver, but which now lie desolate, the present generation not being able to discover any vein of either of the precious metals; the reason may be that the Jesuits exhausted the mines or that the people of to-day living in these mountains have not the knowledge or luck in striking the right spot. Besides "Cunoputo" being most interesting as the scene of the old Jesuit mines, it is also a very enjoyable "paseo" for visitors, being situated in lovely scenery with the river winding through it.

But to describe all the charming spots around here would be a work requiring several columns in this journal. Suffice to say that Capilla del Monte itself lies in the midst of lovely woods with thousands of palms as well as other timber, the great attraction of the place being in its entire freedom and simplicity, there being no village like Cosquin, Alta Gracia etc. consisting of "ranchos" and houses huddled together. Here the houses can be counted on one's fingers: the Hotel, the Restaurant, the church, station, two good almacecenes and tiendas, the whisky and brandy factory under the able management of Mr. Charles Arbert, Mr. Arbert's house, that of Don Gregorio Moyano, the former land-owner here and belonging to the old and aristocratic family of the Olmos, and some dozen ranchos. This forms the whole of Capilla del Monte, and even that is widely scattered, but not too much so, all being in a space of half a mile or so.

In the next section we will describe the great improvements done by the two well-known and distinguished learned Doctors Oscar and Adolfo Doering. These two German gentlemen, two of the most famous Professors of the University of Cordoba, are the owners of all the land in and around Capilla del Monte.

The well-known "Tienda Progreso," in Calle Peru, sent round charming wall almanacks for 1893 yesterday; and we return thanks for our share of them.

BOIS-DURCI.

Some of our railways have put a stop to the issue of free passes, even to clergymen, and have first looked up the matter by consulting the scriptures, with the result that in the passenger-office of a well-known railway company the following notice appears :—

In these days there were no passes given. Search the scriptures :

Thou shalt not pass.
Num. XX.-18.
This generation shall not pass.
Mark XIII.-20.
Suffer not a man to pass.
Judges III.-18.
So he paid the fare and went.
Jonas I.-3.
None shall ever pass.
Isaias XXXIV.-10.
Though they roar they shall not pass.
Jeremiah V.-22.
The wicked shall no more pass.
Nahum I.-12.

On seeing the above, one of our most respected clergymen remarked that the texts had no force whatever as regards the clergy, for he said he read that—

The priest and Levite passed.
Luke X.-31-32.

A friend recently returned from India sends me the following in the interest of dog-lovers. He says that when travelling through the country, especially in the hot season, he found his dogs frequently affected with blindness, a kind of thick film forming over the eyes, and in one particularly bad case, acting on the advice of an old Shikari, he grated some sugar as fine as possible and applied it to the eyes, with the gratifying result that the dog speedily became all right again. Personally I love dogs, and I have often seen puppies when suffering from distemper with their eyes closed up, and possibly the above simple remedy might be efficacious in their case in affording relief.

Now that the season at Mar del Plata has commenced, a few words on swimming will not be out of place. I cannot find that swimming has ever been taught as a branch of education in our English schools, yet common sense tells us that it would not, on many disastrous occasions, be amiss if ladies were less terrified in accidents by water and had ever so slight a power of self-preservation; and that youth of the other sex were taught an art, pleasing and salutary, by which they might, in the course of years and not uncommon circumstances, save their own and other lives. Both the ancient Greeks and Romans considered the art of swimming a neces ary qualification for every gentleman, as is apparent from the proverb by which they denoted an ignorant man: "Neque literas neque natare didisci" he has learnt neither to read nor to swim.

The Queen has given two tartan dresses to her grand-daughter the Princess Marie of Edinburgh, so we may suppose we had better prepare ourselves for a rage for tartans ere long. Let us hope it will have but a butterfly existence. We tremble to think how some would look in tartans, royal or otherwise, though they may suit the small features and delicate complexion of the young and pretty Princess Marie.

Shoes are now made of strong guipure lace, they are very dainty and yet strong. Leather shoes and boots are worn in England ventilated in such a manner as not to expose the foot to wet or damp, an excellent idea for this country, as thick leather is apt to heat the foot unduly.

There were a great many people buzzing about Rooke's quinta in Quilmes at the bazaar on Wednesday, leaving honey (not gathering it) in the form of 'pesos' at each fair stall-holders hive. Every variety of dress was represented by the ladies, from the demi and semi-demi toilette down to the severe simplicity of a blue serge gown and a small white bow. The Bow is a great institution still, though it is rather on the wane. Sometimes it is called a chou, sometimes a jabot, sometimes a waterfall or chiffon Marie Antoniette; but it is the same through all imitations. Next to it comes the silk blouse, which is doubtless convenient, but somehow only looks becoming on the most slender of figures. Fair ladies, how could you have made such a mistake as not to provide dinner for the male visitors from town; they would gladly have spent more of their money if they could have had something substantial to eat. What saith the old maxim? "the way to an Englishman's heart is through his stomach." And on this occasion you would have run against nothing on your road. 'Tis a hungry truth. I returned to town with empty pockets and stomach to match, for I was unsuccessful in my search for sandwiches, my fair attendant being waylaid by a mortal hungrier than myself; alas she was not proof against the temptation of a considerable sum for the dinner intended for me. Whether it was the loss of these sandwiches or whether it was the line of interesting sandwich men which in the early morning had marched past me in the Calle Piedad carrying the advertisement of the "fiesta campestre" which allured me to my doom I cannot say. I suddenly became interested in the derivation of the word sandwich, and found they were invented by the fourth Lord Sandwich about the year 1745; he was a confirmed gambler and used this means of taking food so that he could eat without having to rise from the table.

ST. PATRICK'S COLLEGE, MERCEDES.

On Friday, the 9th inst., the annual distribution of prizes took place at this College, which is under the care of the Fathers of Pious Missions and which has secured the reputation of a first class educational establishment. Recently, a large piece of ground in front of this College has been secured as a play ground. The new chapel on the south side is a spacious building. The altar and sacristy will be on the east side, not far from the present college portal. A portion of the building will be railed off for the use of the students and the community. The public can enter directly from the street. An organ gallery will be built at the west end. The Very Rev. Superior intends to erect at a later date a much large building with architectural finish. He has also in contemplation the enlargement of the College building on the east.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen assembled on Friday to witness the distribution of prizes. A grand stand with flags and decorations had been laid down in the 'patio.' Father O'Grady, the Very Rev. Superior, in addressing those present cordially thanked them for their attendance. He expressed himself highly pleased with the studies of the pupils and the progress made during the year, and hoped for a still greater improvement next year. Father O'Grady exhorted parents to send their children to school at an early age. He wished to inform the public that after paying off the debt which lay on the College when he first took charge of it he thought it his duty to erect a church where not only the pupils but the public too could assemble to perform their devotions. He and his Community were striving to carry on the mission and the College conjointly, and they had every reason to be thankful to the people of the district. However, their first duty was to honour God, and for that reason before making other improvements he felt bound to attend to the House of God. In conclusion the Very Rev. gentleman referred to the Rev. Samuel O'Reilly, Irish chaplain of Chivilcoy, who was present, and in specially thanking him for his presence mentioned that it was in great part owing to him that the College had any existence, because he had befriended it in the days of adversity.

Rev. Father O'Reilly in reply said that he always had taken a lively interest in the College. It was an institution suited to the wants of the Irish people, where their children could be sure of receiving a proper education. Though it had started from a small beginning and had met with difficulties it was now firmly established. He wished to congratulate the Superior and the professors who had worked so hard during the year, and also the pupils who had given such good results in their examinations.

Mr. Dinneen, of Buenos Ayres, said that he hoped to see the College progressing year by year, adding to its curriculum of studies, advancing with the age, and competing in results with the foremost collegiate institutions in this or any other country.

An exhibition of literary entertainments was then given, and the different students called on acquitted themselves in a very creditable manner.—Southern Cross.

A PUBLIC DANGER.

B. Ayres, Dec. 16th

Mr. Editor,—

Could you kindly suggest to the proprietors of the timber edifice outside the Exhibition in Calle Artes, corner of Piedad, the advisability of painting those four posts in some conspicuous color. If not it is quite possible that some of your subscribers will be after breaking those posts with their heads when they jump off the tram-cars at that corner.

I should think that the Silvertown India-rubber Company might get a cheap advertisement by putting rubber buffers on those posts or by the bribe of a little Pilsen beer the tram-drivers might be got to stop at that point to set down passengers.

Yours truly,
Tram-tripper.

CONGRESS.

THE DEPUTIES.

The House met at 3.30. Dr. Gilbert in the chair.

The Judge Pizarro Commission resigned "en masse," and after a long debate the House accepted their resignation and resolved to withdraw in the Senate the charges against the Judge.

The House rose at 5 30.

THE SENATE.

Met at 4 p.m., and began by refusing Senator Tagle the week's leave of absence he asked for.

The House then voted the Postal, Telegraph and Internal taxes till it came to the 10 per cent on private bank profits, when it rose at 6.45 p.m., to continue the debate to-day at 2.30 p.m.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The week wound up yesterday briskly, with plenty of news and rumours buzzing about, but no mails from Europe, as the Orenoque and Citta di Genova were not port-doctored at Montevideo on Friday, having arrived too late.

A very important Cabinet Council was held yesterday about the Foreign Debt. Minister Romero hopes to lower the interest all round, to stop issuing the Moratoribus Bonds at once, and to begin the new service in April. He counts on having about eleven millions currency yearly to devote to the foreign debt service.

We're gradually laying in our Christmas breakfast and dinner. The River Plate Tea Company has sent us a package of Diamond Tea, not to be beaten in the Summer Palace at Pekin; and Mr Cobham, of the Creamery—now the best confectioners in town—has supplied us with plum-pudding and mince pies. Now, other kind subscribers, the roast beef and turkey, please.

We feel much pleasure in saluting the distinguished Argentine statesman, Don Bernardo Irigoyen, on his reaching to-day the ordinary span of human life—three score years and ten. We sincerely wish him many happy returns of the day.

Sunday Observance! With respect to the letter of our correspondent Eira Gwyn we are requested to say that the Anglican clergy were not asleep, but only loyally awaiting the return of their Bishop. They hand us the advertisement which appears in another page, and will do their best to press forward the subject, with or without "knowledge, ability, or wit." The first meeting is announced at Belgrano on Monday.

On Tuesday 20th inst. a service of song entitled "The Oiled Feather" will take place in the Band of Hope, Calle Santo Domingo 862, commencing at eight o'clock. Admission, adults 50, Children 30 cents.

The following: telegrams are detained at the River Plate Telegraph office, Calle San Martin 287. From Cadiz, for Mostaggons. From London, for Subversa.

There will be a cricket match at Flores to day, commencing at 11 o'clock, between two teams chosen by Messrs. Carlisle and M. G. Fortune. Mrs. Carlisle has kindly consented to preside at the tea table.

Cricket Match. Buenos Ayres Western Railway v. Quilmes C.C. To-day a match will be played on the Quilmes C.C. ground at Quilmes, commencing on arrival of 10 a.m. train from Central, between above clubs. The following gentlemen will comprise the B.A., Railway XI:—B J Baker (captain), F F Foster, A W Bannatyne; M A Halstead, W P Schoppe, A M Clarke, E D Moffat, A J Avery, P A Nolan, J T Huxtable, F F Lore.

The most difficult programme yet issued this year to pick out winners is that for the races to-day at Belgrano, some horses being entered as often as four times. A very large attendance may be expected and good racing counted on. Our selections are :—

Premio Orme—Carpintero or Simpleton
" Sir Hugo—Salvacion or Egbert
" Final—Federal or Sucre
" La Fleche—Apolo or Thalia
" Chene Royal—Stone Cross or Holland
" Rueil — Capitan Lopez or Erato
" Fra Angelico — Egbert or Siva.

The Annual Exhibition at Mr. Hutton's English High School will take place on Wednesday next at 7.30 p.m.

As will be seen by an advertisement in another column, our "Argentine Switzerland" correspondent made a very serious blunder in stating that the Hotel Argentino at Cosquin, managed by Dermidio Cordoba, would not be open this season. A guest now staying there informs us that not only is it open, but has been repaired and enlarged, and is by far the best and healthiest hotel in the place.

A letter from New York to the Republic of San Louis says: "If you think a woman can't keep a secret ask the Customs officers of New York. They make the most adroit, the most accomplished smugglers in the business. An inspector said to me recently: "A female, if she be crooked in her dealings with Uncle Sam, will outwit us and bamboozle us twice as easy as a man. She will look at you with liquid eyes and a tear in her voice as big as the diamond stowed away in the lining of her corset; will lie and lie and lie with the easy grace of an Ochilltree tinctured with the innocence of a King's daughter." I have already told Republic readers of the woman whose husband died abroad and who smuggled an elaborate mourning outfit across in the coffin with her departed. Lord! Her's was only one of many ruses resorted to. This woman, by the way, has disappeared from view. She no longer struts upper Broadway. Married again, perhaps. Ough! How I pity the poor devil that got her. She will probably use him for ballast some day when she gets through with him, as she did his predecessor."

The particulars of the Balmacedist conspiracy in Chile read more like a chapter about the Commune in Paris than anything else. Robbery, arson and murder were deliberately planned for each parish in Santiago, and lists have been seized with the names of all the people who were to be butchered! The Archbishop's Palace was also destined to destruction. It is to be hoped for the honour of civilized humanity and of South America that there is much exaggeration in all this blood-curdling news.

The very latest about the Lozardi murder in Santa-Fé is that "otras personas conocidas" are likely to be implicated in the horrid crime

The last sitting of the Wise Men was extremely prosy, mostly about increased taxation. Several ratepayers turned suddenly grey yesterday on reading our article on city taxation, and exclaimed "where and when is all this going to end?" At the three D's and the Greek Kalends.

We feel much indebted to the talented writer Dn. Carlos Rojo for a copy of his interesting work "El Noventa," which explains the causes and development of the crisis of progress.

The Director of the Historical Museum is trying to coax the Mendoza Government to send him the Spanish flags that have lain in the capital of the grapy province since 1818. It is very hard to get anything out of Mendoza, except a good bunch of grapes. Was there not a royal row some time ago about these flags being stolen?

The Geneva Red Cross Association assisted on Friday at a solemn funeral Mass in the Merced church, for those of their members who died during the year. The V. Rev. Canon Terrero officiated. It will be remembered that the well-known philanthropist Don Leon Gallardo, who died last June, was a leading member of the Red Cross Society.

If anybody who has taken or is about to take a ticket in the Golondrinas lottery has never been to Lomas de Zamora, the village of green lanes, he had better go to-day, as the lottery comes off next Sunday.

The La Plata correspondent of the Fiscal announces that secret preparations for a patriotic breeze there are going on every night; he adds other things, but they require confirmation.

In view of the many recent fatal mistakes in compounding medicine the Health Board has ordered a daily visit by the Inspector and two employees to every apothecary's shop in town, to see if the manager is at his post; and if not, he is to be made to swallow a bitter pill in the shape of a whacking fine.

There is another grand musical, prandial and fireworkial turn-out at the Tigre Hotel to-night. We are unable to say if there will be anything rouletteial after dinner. Ask the La Plata detectives.

Poor Rioja must be in a truly frightful state of impecuniosity, as the Governor has had to appeal to the Minister of the Interior for a present of 125 uniforms for the police, who are half naked, and no tailor in Rioja is goose enough to trust the Government, which has not a copper to jingle on a tombstone, much less the price of so many uniforms. Has Rioja any loan running in London? We really forget.

What has become of the (fool) hardy Norsemen who started from this city three months ago to walk to the Chicago Exhibition in eight months—a quite impossible feat in the time? Now there are some gay and festive Frenchmen in the field who propose to take a stroll from this city to Paris, via Behring Straits and Siberia, if the Argentine Government will kindly pay the piper. We anticipate funerals in connection with both these walking parties.

Another new passenger for the "Editorial Bus." One, too, we have wondered did not enter before. We have before us the prospectus of a new weekly paper authorized by the Camara Sindical of the Bolsa, owned and managed by their energetic and able Secretary, Mr. Rafael Pons. The paper will contain the official quotations of sales of gold, stocks and shares bought and sold in the Bolsa; the current prices of the country's products; review articles on exportation and maritime movement; statistical statements, freights, notices of home and foreign markets, and all other matters relating to business and commerce. The experience and ability of the proprietor and editor of this new and much-needed weekly encourage us to believe it will meet with great appreciation by the entire commercial community and prove a valuable and successful record of current prices. The first number will appear on the 7th Jan. prox. We notice the enterprising firm of advertising contractors, Messrs. Davis, Calder and Co., 284 San Martin, are appointed sole agents for the advertisements.

Gold Premium

First Ring..... 181.70%
Second Ring..... 179.80%

The gold market was active and nervous this morning. All kinds of rumors were set afloat and the premium was successfully pushed up by the alarmists. Over one million gold dollars changed hands at the first ring. Half a million was sold for cash; the premium opened at 181%, fell to 180%, and closed hard at 181.70. About a quarter of a million was sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 180.50 and closed at 181%. A fair amount was sold for the end of January, the premium closing at 179.50%. There was a stiff, rising t

The following is a summary of the business effected at the second ring today:—

Judge Posse has appointed "escribanos" M. P. Barrenechea and Piñero to divide the estate left by the late Dr. Salvador Maria del Carril, amounting to a value of no less than nine million national dollars, comprising:—

Estancia La Portería in Lobos, area 12,500 cuadras, with 77,000 sheep, 7,000 cows and 8,000 mares.

Estancia Polvaredas in Saladillo, area 14,000 cuadras, with 45,200 sheep, 15,000 cows and 3,000 mares.

Estancia San Justo in Alvear, area 15,000 cuadras, with 13,000 sheep, 12,100 cows and 1,200 mares.

Estancia Santa Rita also in Alvear, area 9,200 cuadras, with 700 sheep and 500 cows.

Estancia Pai Lauquen in Bolivar, area 17,200 cuadras, with 14,000 sheep, 11,500 cows and 1,100 horses.

400 cuadras in Lobos.

25 leagues of land in National territories.

We are requested by the Highland Scot Canning Company that in reference to our remarks in our last issue, the purchase of several thousand steers alluded to left no loss whatever to the Company.

The estancia "los Sarzales," comprising 61 leagues of land near the city of Santa Fe, has been sold for $11000 $m/n Buyers, Messrs. Freres, Brisson and Martindale.

The sale is reported of 24 leagues of land in Hinojos, province of Buenos Ayres, for 97,000 $m/n. Buyer, Centro Pobladora del Sur.

We take the following telegram and comments thereon from our colleague the Review of the River Plate:—

"There is a marked improvement in Argentine securities, and the market closes with an upward tendency. The 1886 loan reached as high as 70¼ and closes at 70½, and the Funding has touched 70¼ closing firm at 69½.

"Consols are down an ¼.

"In Bank Shares the only difference to record is a fall of 1¼ in London and River Plate.

"Rails are strong, and we have pleasure in recording the fact that Westerns have reached par. Rosarios have improved 2, and Central Argentines ¼. Central Uruguays show a rise of 1, but Cordoba and Rosarios are down 7½. As we have only just commenced quoting the stock we are unable to say when the last sale was made at 45, but should think it was some time back. The remaining lines are unchanged."

Messrs. Manzoni and Co. of La Plata have obtained permission from the Municipality of that city to establish a grand fabric for preserving meat, close to the corrales de abasto.

The sale of a large and valuable estancia in the partido of Pilar including all the haciendas on the place for $278,000 is reported. Mr. John R. Jordan is the broker who effected the sale.

The following is a list of the bids presented to the Municipality for the right of putting advertisements in the streets and plazas for next year:—

Messrs. Gaerioco and Co. and Revolti Gimenez and Co. offered to pay 25 and 20 per cent of the total of the avisos they put up.

	$ a month.
Mr. Charles Lepp offers to pay.....	2,100
Mr. Joseph Graham....	1,500
Armando Laforgue....	2,130
Odone Flossati.....	700

We dont believe these Municipal avisos pay very well, since in many places these advertisement boards are in the most neglected condition and going to ruin. The new scheme of advertising on the walls as is seen very much in Paris is coming greatly into vogue. In London this class of advertisements is restricted to the railway stations.

Mr. Barclay leaves for England in the Clyde on Wednesday. A farewell dinner was given to him the other night at Mercer's grand saloons. We are glad to say that Mr. Barclay has much enjoyed his visit to the Plate and has seen a great deal of the country during his short stay. His speech at the St. Andrew's dinner was published in Spanish and attracted great notice in high native circles. We all wish him a pleasant voyage and hope he will soon return.

Messrs G. Kelsey and Company sold to-day at the Central Market the following wools:—

Kilos.	From	$
30,000 cross-Lincoln with carretilla Arroyo Corto		8.10
15,000 lambs' with do "		8.10
14,500 wool with do.. Curamalan		8.10
3,800 fine wool. .. Vedia		6.50
5,000 do .. .. .. Arbolito		7.70

The sale of three lots of wool from Patagones may interest many of our readers down there; 12,000 kilos at $4.20, 10,000 kilos at $4.50, 18,000 kilos at 4.30. Some of these wools, we believe, were bought in Patagones at 4.70, which of course leaves a loss to the buyer. The arrivals of wool at the Central and Constitucion markets are very large and the total sales this morning reached about 750,000 kilos, prices averaging for good mestizo from 5.50 to $7.35, and for Lincoln from 7 to $9. The sale of a fine lot, 38,000 kilos from Rio Negro at $2.95 gold, was reported, also 3,000 bags of maize at $4.70 for export and 5.00 morocho at $5.10. 10,000 tons of new wheat, deliverable in Rosario, at $5.50.

Holders of certificates of the Empresitto 1892 are notified that on the 20th inst the time for exchanging them expires.

The arrivals in port during the last fortnight were:—

20 steamers and 42 sailing vessels, and the sailings with full cargoes were 17 steamers and 9 sailing vessels with 143,507 dry ox and cow hides, 6,450 salted do, 7,659 dry horse hides, 6,397 bales of sheepskins, 12,955 bales of wool, 110 bales hair, 1,102 pipes and bords tallow, 1,184,835 ks jerked beef, 44,218 bags maize, 12,406 do wheat, 80 do linseed, 6,770 bales hay, 460 oxen, 87,000 horns, 1,400 pks minerals, 267 bars copper, 3,500 bags barley, 25,000 bags bran, 205 bales nutria skins, 1,150 bags rye, 19,000 bags flour, 64 cks tripe, 763,456 ks Quebracho wood, 102 carpincho skins, 5 cases feathers, 1,188 bags linseed cake, 516,298 ks ash, 857,438 do bones, 820 bags potatoes.

Montevideo, Dec. 15.

Arrivals:—

British bg Catherine from Newport with coal from Paysandú, S.S. Rio from Hamburg. Nor bk Veritas from Hull to Farini, Italian bk Union from New York to order, S. S. G. Massini from Genoa.

In a few days the steamers Rio from Hamburg and Heraclides are expected to arrive in the Plata port, having on board the hydraulic machines which are to be erected there and cost £20,000. These machines are only the first half of those which have been contracted for by the Government, and consist of 6 hydraulic cranes of an elevating power of 15 tons, and six capstans capable of winding in a weight of 10 tons.

In four months time Mr. G. Suther expects to have them in working order in his establishment.

As soon as the Provincial Government shall have paid Mr. Suther the cost of this machinery or say a sum of 300,000 francs, the remainder of the engines will be despatched by the contractors in Europe; namely 22 cranes, 11 capstans, 14 bridges and the other half of the machines for erection in the Casa Central, as well as a floating crane of an elevating power of 35 tons.

The French steamer Medoc took the following cargo for Havre:—585 bals wool, 7,500 dry hides; for Dunkirk 2,022 bales of wool.

We take the following from the Montevideo Times with regard to the new import duty on potatoes proposed by the Uruguayan Government:—

"On the assumption that native-grown potatoes cannot compete with those imported from Argentina, the Chambers, obsequious as usual to the indications of the Executive, are just about to pass an import duty on Argentine potatoes of $1 per 100 kilos. The passing of this tax will not have any favourable effect on the conditions of production, that is to say it will not enable local producers to sell their potatoes any cheaper than they did before. Therefore, its only effect will be either to drive Argentine potatoes out of the market altogether, or to send their price up to that of the native article. In either case, the consumer will have to pay more, and therefore the tax falls directly on the consumer. According to the President's Message of September 9, the importation of potatoes from Argentina in the present year is estimated at six million kils. At $1 per 100 kilos the duty on them would amount to $60,000. Therefore, when the duty is enforced, the public will either have to pay $60,000 a year more for their potatoes, or will have to restrict themselves in the consumption of this important vegetable. This, like most of the taxes devised by the present Chamber, will fall the hardest on the poorer classes, who are the chief consumers of potatoes. The present price of potatoes in the market is, we believe, 40 cents the arroba, which is equivalent to 3½ cents the kilo. A duty of $1 per 100 kilos therefore represents an increase of about 40 o|o in the price. And when thus «protected», the native producers are more likely to raise their prices, hitherto kept down by competition with the Argentine article, so that in addition to the $60,000 extra to be paid on the six million kilos imported from Argentina, there will be another sum to be paid on the quantity consumed of the local article, whatever that quantity may be. Thus this «protective» tax will be every way prejudicial to the consumer, and will be anothea blow to the working classes."

The following were the exports from Montevideo for the first fortnight of December 37595 dried and 14280 salted hides, 68 bales hair, 2013 bales wool, 819 bales sheepskins, 16354 bales jerked beef, 137 pipes and 349 bords-tallow, 1000 sheep, 60 calves, 6 kegs cheese, 50 bales lucerne, 10 baskets fruit, 4 bales carpincho skins, 11 cases feathers, 18479 saladero horns, 1 bale cow hides, 598 sacks dried blood, 120 mules, 448 tons bones, 15 bales tobacco, 3000 died kip skins, 6 bocoyes tallow, 8 bales cow hair, 30 bundles sole,s 10 sacks coffee, 20 cases soap. 20 cases grease, 4 cases machinery. 42 cases tobacco, 20 baskets garlic, 35 bales brushraw, 15 bales nutria skins, 100 cases preserved tongues, 300 sacks nuts, 3 bales ipecac, 10 bales kip skins, 4 casks auriferous ask, 30 cases liquid meat, 3088 dried horse hides.

APPEAL TO IRISH ESTANCIEROS.

The Ladies of the Boys' Orphanage are in want of 500 kilos of unwashed wool to make mattrasses for the orphanage.

So many of our kind countrymen in the camp are now selling their wool that the Committee expect they may be saved the expense of having to buy the wool in the market, and that one or more estancieros may give an order on their broker for the 500 kilos, individually or collectively for which they will receive the thanks of the Committee and the prayers of the orphans.

Maria M. Mulhall.

President of the Boys' Orphanage, 146 Calle Segunda Cochabamba or the Standard Office.

Paper Money.

Projectors every now and then start up with plans for curing all the economical evils of society by means of an unlimited issue of inconvertible paper. There is, in truth, a great charm in the idea. To be able to defray the expenses of government without taxation, and, in fine, to make the fortune of the whole community, is a brilliant prospect, when once a man is capable of believing that printing a few characters on bits of paper will do it. The philosopher's stone could not be expected to do more.

The substitution of Paper for metallic currency is a national gain: any further increase of Paper beyond this is but a form of robbery.—John Stuart Mill on Inconvertible Paper Currency.

Paper Money properly means paper made legal tender, and not legally convertible into gold, or anything else, at the pleasure of the holders, or at any given period. No part whatever of the value of such paper money is derived from confidense. it circulates because it is made legal tender, and because the use of a circulating medium is indispensable; and its value, supposing the demand to be constant, is in all cases inversely as the quantity in circulation.—

BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our cornfields had been increased by that amount.

What a wonderful result is this !"
